The Editor - A Schoolboy's Composition.

A schoolboy's composition on "The Editor" written for a school not far from Cincinnati. The editor is one of the happiest animals in the known world.

Didn't Enjoy Himself as Usual.

As an original expression of heavy grief we doubt if anything more touching has been read than the following, of a crushed heart, in Star City, Nevada.

Deaths being of a rare occurrence in the settlement, of course everybody went to the funeral.

State of Illinois, Gallatin county, ss: "William M. Davis, of the town of Equality, in the county and State aforesaid, being sworn, says that on the 25th day of May, A. D. 1861, I left William county, under Captain D. Brooks, for the army of the Confederate States, and joined that army, and was badly wounded at the battle of Shiloh; and further state that I went to that army by and under the advice and influence of John A. Logan and his brother-in-law, H. B. Cunningham, who told me that Logan would join us in two or three months, or in a short period of time."
